EDITOR'S NOTE

Dear Pensioner

The year is well underway and the tenure of the current Board of Trustees is due to expire at the end of May 2016. A new Board will need to be elected and appointed to take over from June 2016, therefore the process of electing new Board members has begun. The Trustee Elections 2016 article on pages 1 and 2 highlights the dates and processes for nomination and voting that you need to be aware of. Also be on the lookout for detailed communication concerning the entire Trustee Election period.

In this edition, we also cover the deductions that the EPPF is allowed to deduct from a pension and explain the relationship between the EPPF, the service providers who deduct monthly premiums and pensioners.

Regards

The Editor

ACTUALITIES: KNOW YOUR FUND

TRUSTEE ELECTIONS 2016

The term of office of the current Board of Trustees will end at the end of May 2016 when a new Board of Trustees must be in office. The Fund has already begun with preparatory work to get everything in place for a new Board to be elected and appointed.

The Fund has appointed an independent, non-profit company, The Electoral Institute for Sustainable Democracy in Africa ("EISA"), as Independent Electoral Officer to oversee the election process of the new Board of Trustees. EISA's main role will be to monitor the elections to ensure that it is free and fair, and will also assist with communication.

What to expect during the Trustee Elections period

The election period has been divided into 5 phases which cover the two main activities, candidate nomination and voting. Participation in the nomination process and in the voting process for preferred candidates is important as it impacts the final voting results.

Pensioners will need to nominate candidates who they think will best represent them on the Board. Of the nominated candidates, the top two eligible candidates with the most votes will be appointed as pensioner elected trustees.

The important dates and activities to keep in mind during the election period are as follows:

| | | |
|---------|--|------------------------------|
| Phase 1 | Pre-Nomination and Information sharing | July – 14 August 2015 |
| Phase 2 | Official period for the Nomination of Candidates | 17 August – 16 October 2015 |
| Phase 3 | Pre-Voting Nomination and Information sharing | 1 November – 31 January 2016 |
| Phase 4 | Formal voting period | 1 February – 31 March 2016 |
| Phase 5 | Results | 11 April 2016 |

You will note that the time allowed for nominations and voting are 6 weeks for each phase; so everybody will be able to participate and get their choices in to the Fund.

For all our technologically savvy pensioners, it will be a welcome relief to know that this coming election will utilise electronic voting mechanisms in addition to postage which will continue to be used.

Communication during this period will utilize all of the channels available to the Fund and will aim to reach pensioners using all the contact details that the Fund has of all pensioners. This will include SMS, E-mail, normal postal services and the EPPF website (www.eppf.co.za). This will ensure maximum reach to all pensioners during the election process.

What conditions does EPPF use to determine eligibility of candidates to stand for election?

The conditions to determine if candidates are eligible to stand for election are aligned with the Trustee Elections Policy's eligibility requirements as set-out on extract number (5), Eligibility and Requirements, of the Trustee Elections Policy.

The following is an extract from the EPPF's Trustee Elections Policy:

Not only does the Fund have an obligation to ensure that those persons elected or appointed to serve as Board members have the necessary fiduciary skills and capacity to be able to serve as Board members, but it should also endeavour to achieve an adequate representation on the Board of expert and professional members.

Eligibility

Persons Not Eligible To Be Board Members

Any person who:

- is a member of the Fund administration or is employed by the Fund;
- is a member of the Executive Management Committee (Exco) of the Principal Employer or a member of its governing board; Eligibility

Persons Not Eligible To Be Board Members

Any person who:

- is a member of the Fund administration or is employed by the Fund;
- is a member of the Executive Management Committee (Exco) of the Principal Employer or a member of its governing board;
- has been or is found guilty of fraud, theft, forgery or uttering a forged document, perjury, any offence involving dishonesty, any offence in connection with any company or public office or with the promotion, formation or management of a company or any other criminal offence by a court of law or properly constituted inquiry;
- has been or is declared insolvent, sequestrated or placed under judicial management and has not been rehabilitated;
- has been or is declared unfit to hold office as a public official, director of companies or any other position of trust due to mental incapacity, criminal record or any other reason;
- has been, was or is removed from office as a Board member in terms of Section 3.5 (4) of the Rules;
- has served as a Board member for two consecutive terms of four (4) years each, in terms of Section 3.4(2) of the Rules;
- has been or is dismissed from the service of any employer on account of misconduct;
- has been removed as or refused to be allowed to become or has been found unfit and proper to be approved for becoming, a Board member by the Financial Services Board;

shall not be eligible to be nominated as a candidate to stand for election to serve on the Board, or to be appointed by the Principal Employer or to serve as a Board member. Any nominations to stand for election received from and on behalf of any person, or any appointment made by the Principal Employer who is subject to any of the above categories, shall be rejected by the Board or its duly authorised representative. Any member of the Board who becomes subject to any of the above, shall also be deemed to be unfit to hold office as a Board member.”

Special mention must be made to clarify the reference to “term of office”. In this regard, any Board Member who has served on the Board for any period during a term shall be considered to have served a full term. So even if the member served, for example, for 2 years only, and the second term was for 4 years, the Board Member will be considered to have served two consecutive terms and would not be eligible for re-election.

Should you have any queries about the election process, please contact the EISA Chief Electoral Officer, Ntokozo Ngidi on toll free number 0800 11 43 73 for more information. Alternatively you may e-mail eppf@eisa.org.za or fax 0865 295 254.

You may also contact the EPPF at our normal contact numbers, toll free number 0800 11 45 48 or visit the EPPF website (www.eppf.co.za) for information.

We will keep you posted as we progress through the nomination and voting cycles.

PERMISSIBLE DEDUCTIONS FROM A PENSION

What deductions can the EPPF deduct from a pension?

The EPPF is not allowed to make unapproved deductions from a pension. The Pension Funds Act 1956 and the rules of the EPPF prescribe that the EPPF can deduct from a pensioner only such amounts that are allowed in terms of the Pension Funds Act 1956, the Income Tax Act of 1962 or the Maintenance Act of 1998.

In terms of those provisions, the EPPF can deduct from any benefit payable to a pensioner any amount which the EPPF has paid or will by arrangement pay on behalf of the pensioner including amongst others:

- A pensioner's subscription to a medical scheme that is registered in terms of the Medical Schemes Act, 1998;
- Any insurance premium payable by a pensioner to an insurer registered in terms of the Long-term Insurance Act, 1998;
- Any purpose approved by the Registrar of Pension Funds, on the conditions determined by him, upon a request in writing from the EPPF;

The EPPF will pay the specific amount to the medical schemes, insurer, institute, organization or person as it is authorised to deduct by means of a debit order or payment instruction from either the beneficiary or authorised Court of Law.

In the unfortunate event where a pensioner gets divorced, and upon receipt of a valid court order in terms of the Divorce Amendment Act, 1989, the EPPF will be authorised to deduct any amount so ordered from a pensioner's monthly pension, provided that no lump-sum amount would be paid. As a pensioner would not have a “Pension Interest” as defined in the Divorce Act (A benefit that a member would be entitled to in terms of the rules of the Fund if the member would resign on the date of divorce), the only amount available for distribution would be a portion of the monthly pension by means of a continuing deduction order.

Who manages the relationship with a service/product provider?

The EPPF's responsibility towards managing the relationship between a pensioner and a third party service provider, for instance, a medical aid fund, is limited to facilitating the deduction and payment of the premiums to the service provider, of the contributions paid from a pension. The EPPF does not manage the client/service provider relationship with the service/product provider on behalf of pensioners.

This means that in the event that any pensioner would like to change service providers, the pensioner would have to ensure that his/her details are updated with that service provider. In the event where a pensioner requires information about the service, then that pensioner must contact the service provider directly. The EPPF is unfortunately not in a position to administer or manage the relationship between any pensioner and a service provider.

UNDERSTANDING THE ESKOM COMPULSORY DEATH BENEFIT COVER

The Eskom Compulsory Death Benefit Cover operates in the form of a death benefit insurance policy. The insurance agreement is between Eskom and its subsidiary, ESCAP. The claims administration is currently provided by Sanlamsky.

Eskom is the master policy holder and no individual policy schedules are issued to eligible pensioner members. This cover provides a benefit to the pensioner's beneficiary in the event of the death of a pensioner.

The policy pays out a fixed amount of R15,000 to the deceased pensioner's beneficiary on the death of the pensioner.

A premium of R11.88 is deducted from the monthly pension and is then paid to ESCAP. Membership of the Eskom Compulsory Death Benefit Fund is compulsory for all eligible Eskom pensioners.

It is important that the reader verifies the benefits and conditions of the benefit with Eskom through its Insurance Management Services Department. For more information your enquiry may be directed to:

EPPF APPOINTS A NEW RETIREMENT FUND CONSULTANT

The EPPF is pleased to officially introduce a new Retirement Fund Consultant whom you may have already met at various pensioner functions. Reginald Maubane joined the Fund in January of this year and has already been out and about. His brief profile is provided below.

Reginald Maubane was appointed as a Retirement Fund Consultant effective 02 January 2015.

Reginald completed a National Diploma in Human Resources Management with the Tshwane University of Technology. He acquired a B.Com Accounting Sciences degree with the University of South Africa as well as a course in International Financial Reporting Standards. Reginald also completed a Post-graduate Diploma in Employee Benefits Management: Pensions, with Monash University.

He began his career with Old Mutual as a Financial Advisor and Client Services Consultant and was later promoted to the position of Assistant Employee Benefits Consultant. Prior to joining the EPPF, Reginald was with NBC Holdings as an Employee Benefits Consultant.

FINANCIAL PLANNING MADE EASY

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

A person's last Will and testament puts his / her last wishes on record and gives clear instructions on how his / her estate is to be distributed after the person had passed away. A last Will is a very necessary method to ensure that your loved ones are taken care of after you have passed away. As testator (the owner of a Will) you can decide and prescribe who your beneficiaries and the executor (A person that is appointed to administrate the estate of a deceased person) of your estate should be. It will also allow you to appoint a guardian of your choice to take care of your children.

The top five facts about Wills

- If a person dies without a Will (Intestate) an executor will be appointed by the high court to take care of or administer the property of that person's minor children and, in addition, their inheritance.

- For help with drafting a Will approach a law firm, a bank or a trust company.
- All witnesses to a Will must be over the age of 14
- Beneficiaries to a Will cannot attest to or sign that Will as a witness or be involved in its drafting
- Any witness to a Will is automatically disqualified from benefitting under the Will.

REMINDER TO PENSIONERS TO SUBMIT TAX RETURNS (IT12R)

Tax season has already started and it is important that you file your annual tax return to SARS. Anyone that earns an income is obligated to file a tax return every year even if your income is below the R250 000 tax threshold. Also if you earn more than one income you are obliged to file the returns. Failure to do so may lead to penalties and SARS may issue a garnishee order (AA88) for non-submission. EPPF has issued tax certificates (IRP5) to all pensioners, if you did not receive the tax certificate for the 2015 tax year please contact our call centre on 0800 114548 or e-mail info@eppf.co.za.

Remember:

- You can file your returns online via eFiling or at your nearest SARS branch
- If you have more than one income you are also obliged to file your tax returns.
- Taxable income include, pension income and certain lump sum benefits.
- Multiple incomes may raise a tax payer's tax rate resulting in an increased tax liability

- Expatriate pensioners may be eligible to apply for exemption from paying tax to two different countries if the country of their residence has a Double Tax Agreement with South Africa.
- Anyone that falls behind on their tax payments may be issued with an AA88 garnishee order by SARS. Monies for the garnishee order will be deducted from the pension before it is paid to the pensioner.

All personal tax related enquiries should be directed to SARS. The EPPF only acts as a tax agent and is not in a position to resolve any tax matters on behalf of pensioners. SARS operates a call centre that is available to answer any and all questions related to tax on the following numbers:

South African callers can reach SARS on: 0800 00 7277 (0800 00 SARS)

International callers can reach SARS on: +27 11 602 2093

WORDS TO LIVE BY...

It is often very easy to take for granted that financial jargon is not everyone's cup of tea. Words to live by is a section that will single out 3 different words in each edition and give their meanings. This edition follows the theme of drafting a Will and explains three words that are important when talking about Wills.

- Testator : The owner of a testament or a Will. This is the person that drafts a Will in order to distribute or donate his / her assets as per his / her wishes after death.
- Intestate : Means that a person has died without leaving a valid Will. An intestate estate is one that will be executed by the state due to the lack of a valid Will from the person that died.
- Testate : Means that a person has a valid Will at the time of death. The estate of this person will be executed by the executor of his/her choosing and his/her assets distributed as per his / her Will.

PENSIONER SAVVY

A savvy pensioner knows where to get the best deals in order to save on anything from the bare necessities that make living more comfortable and to share in the more elusive luxuries such as weekend getaways. This edition of pensioner savvy is all about going back to the basics, taking care of the seemingly small things that ensure a better quality of life and while there are many special deals around, the real savvy move is to avoid driving many kilometers just to save some money on selected items; your fuel costs may end up costing more than the actual saving!

SPECSAVERS

Specsavers is a well-known optometrist chain and can be found in many shopping malls. They offer to qualifying pensioners – 65 years and older - a free frame from its colour coded frame range on the purchase of an eye test and prescription lenses.

For other terms and conditions on this offer, visit <http://www.specsavers.co.za/offer/spectacles/pensioners-package-1>

MEDICLINIC FREE HEALTH NEWS FOR SENIOR CITIZENS

Another simple way to save on medical expenses is following a healthy lifestyle that could improve the quality of life. Mediclinic produces a newsletter that covers health related issues and is targeted at senior citizens. Registration is free on the Mediclinic website:
